

Although I believe you are violating free speech which means you have to take the good with the bad and let people make thier own decisions about what to listen to, don't just single out Howard Stern. Get everyone who is violating your policy, including other-language speaking stations broadcasting in this country. Be fair.